The League of Women Voters of the Hill Country, Texas is sponsoring a forum for the five candidates who have filed for three places on the Bandera City Council. The forum is scheduled for Tuesday, October 10 at 6pm at the Silver Sage in the "Great Room". Please use the door on Buck Creek Drive for entry.

The five candidates are Cindy Coffey (former member), Gregory Gibson, Rebeca Gibson (incumbent and current Mayor Pro Tem), Christine Morse, and Lynn Palmer (incumbent and current member appointed June 2017).

The League of Women Voters - Hill Country, Texas (LWV-Hill Country) is a nonpartisan organization and has a focus in three counties: Bandera, Gillespie, and Kerr. The local organization is part of the state LWV based in Austin, and the national LWV based in Washington. Membership is open to women and men beginning at age 16. There is an annual membership fee. The League has a mission of educating and informing voters, as well as advocating for voters. To act on this mission the League conducts candidate forums and provides candidate information for voters on VOTE411.org.

Early voting begins Monday, October 23 and ends on Friday, November 3. Election Day is Tuesday, November 7.
